

The EU as a Security Provider

Seminar organised by the Netherlands Institute for International Relations 'Clingendael' (The Hague) in cooperation with the Egmont Institute (Brussels)

Wednesday 5 November 2014

University Foundation, 11 Rue d'Egmont – Brussels

Programme:

14.00-14.10 Opening by the Seminar Chair
Sven Biscop, Egmont Institute

Panel 1 – The Scope of the EU as a Security Provider

14.10-14.15 Introduction by the Panel Chair
Margriet Drent, Clingendael Institute

14.15-14.30 The European view
Maciej Popowski, Deputy Secretary-General European External Action Service

14.30-14.45 A national view
Ronja Kempin, Stiftung Wissenschaft und Politik, Berlin

14.45-15.30 Discussion

15.30-15.45 Coffee/tea break

Panel 2 – The EU as a Security Provider: Impact on the Defence Sector

15.45-15.50 Introduction by the Panel Chair
Dick Zandee, Clingendael Institute

15.50-16.05 An outsider view
Daniel Fiott, Institute for European Studies, Free University Brussels

16.05-16.20 A national view
Sandy Johnston, UK Ministry of Defence

16.20-16.55 Discussion

16.55-17.00 Concluding remarks by the Chair